4	Wisques	Abbaye de Notre Dame	donation 28/36?	24 Rue de la Fontaine	62219 Wisques	+33 (0)3.21.95.57.30		The nuns at the abbey of Notre Dame not only put me up in a beautiful room but also gave me dinner and breakfast. A wonderful stop, a lovely room (shower upstairs), dinner and breakfast. Dinner was a bit plain except for the home preserved plums for dessert which were exquisite. Sister Lucy was funny, welcoming and helpful. The weather was a bit brisk and the abbey and rooms were chilly. We wore sweaters and fleece most of the time. The abbaye does allow men to stay there. I was there last month and there were several men. Sister Lucie is wonderful, cheerful and ccommodating. The 36 euros per night includes dinner and breakfast. Donativo for pilgrims with credentials? Beautiful abbey. My room had a double bed. Shared bathroom with hot shower. Provided with ample but simple dinner and breakfast. When I called Abbaye St. Paul I was told I couldn't stay there but to call the convent. I'm not sure if it was because I was a woman. I was shown to a beautiful cottage where I had my own room, access to the kitchen and a sitting room. Dinner was simple but filling. All for donation .

Philippe Aviez the proprietor drove out and met us on the rain swept road and they let us use their computer to access the internet. They couldn't put us up but Mme drove us to Ammettes. Very kind. The rooms are good, with cooking and washing facilities. No breakfast. There is a good Carrefour supermarket to buy food at. € 40 for room only. I felt the owners (at least the lady) were a little abrupt and unwelcoming. I needed help with the washing machine and it seemed to be given grudgingly. My experience was far different to the effusive praise in the CPR accommodation list. ??

13	Braye en Laonnais	b+b David Kaczmarek						Free internet access in bar. Highly recommended. Patron keen on local history and will show you the relics of St Marco in the church! Excellent value - dinner was very good as was breakfast. Logi. It is now €55 for half board (€42 for just the room) for a single person or € 68 half board for a couple (pilgrim prices which includes cheapest price set menu). Our digs in Corbeny are absolute grand compared to what we came from. The room is very clean and modernized with a new bed. We were both into the modern tub and a hot bath. Wow, we have just loved this hotel. It is difficult to leave. For those pilgrims who contemplate staying here, it has to be the best hotel yet and the best value for the money. We were told the regular pelerin menu was not available so we had to pick from the 18.50e selection. We had salads, beef dinner, cheeses from their cheese cart plus desert for 68e for the room and food. I noticed that their regular charge was 115e so he gives pilgrims a good discount. The only accommodation available. I recommend emailing for a quote as I was quoted 55 euro in an email and then was charged 65 euro. I only paid what I was quoted however. The dinner was not very good, but the breakfast was lovely.

In France there are a number of cheap chain hotels which offer basic accommodation including: F1, Etap, Ibis, Premiere Classe, Akena, Balladins, Fast Hotels. At about 30 Euro a room they can offer an alternative to hostels for two people sharing.
15	Trepail		Donation					The proprietress met us on the long uphill leading to the village which was a good thing as it would have been difficult to find her place. The accommodations are not finished, dry walled not painted, light bulb hanging from a wire, beds were uncomfortable. However, the madam was wonderful, served us a nice dinner and breakfast. The village has no bar, patisserie, boulangerie or tabac, nothing. The entrance to the accommodations is through a barn, though a creaky door and up some devilish rickety stairs. An adventure which would have been fun had the beds not been so wicked and if the place felt a little cleaner.

The gite is right next to the church and the spire can be seen some distance off to the right as you first enter Trepail. The rooms are at 6 rue St Martin, but Mme Jacqueminet lives directly across the street at No. 4, so call there on arrival Mme Jacqueminet is very helpful. € 30 for room, dinner and breakfast. Mme Jacqueminet is very helpful, and made bookings for me for the next three nights. She has the key to the church and showed me around. This gite is really "pilgrim friendly." Warm welcome

Monique puts people up because Adelaide T from the AIVF wrote to the Maries in the area asking for people to help pilgrims. You are being put up en famille. Warm, friendly reception. Monique has begun to accept donations. Probably the standout place to stay on my whole walk, because of the welcome I received from Jean-Pierre and Monique Songy into their family. They run a farm and Monique also works in a local Mairie, so there was no one home when I arrived mid-afternoon. Good room. I had dinner with the Songys and some of their relatives who they had invited over to dinner that evening. It was a very nice evening en famille. They are all very fine people. The Songys accept donations from pilgrims. The Songys don't run a gite, they have kindly agreed to help pilgrims in an area with little accommodation, and you are being accepted into their family as a guest – a very important distinction. She brought us into her home and showed us to a room and went back to work leaving complete strangers in her home. We are just overwhelmed that they do this for strangers.

This is a home for disabled people here, with 160 patients and 60 staff, located in very nice surroundings. The staff who looked after me were efficient and very "pilgrim friendly". This is accommodation for people with disabilities but they have a room available for pilgrims. Must have credential. Best to arrange ahead. Very friendly and welcoming. A home for adults with disabilities. The other guests in the home were very friendly and I was so grateful for a warm welcome after a long day. This is much more splendid than I had anticipated. I have a very large room all to myself with hot showers and a large common room. I am promised both dinner and breakfast and have been reading the 32 entries from this year's pilgrims in the VF logbook. There is nothing at Mormant other than the remnants of the abbey and the gite. The nearest town with a Mairie and other accommodation is Leffonds. Annick is a lovely and helpful hostess. The CH was full so we are camping in the garden, surrounded by sheep. The owners let us use their shower, which is rather kind and we're having supper with them. I received a wonderful welcome from Annick. There is nothing else in this hamlet so I was grateful when offered the possibility of dinner. I was served a three-course meal all to myself plus a large breakfast then next morning and was only charged 30 euro for room and meals.

In France there are a number of cheap chain hotels which offer basic accommodation including: F1, Etap, Ibis, Premiere Classe, Akena, Balladins, Fast Hotels. At about 30 Euro a room they can offer an alternative to hostels for two people sharing.
22	Langres	Presbytere	10					2 beds for pilgrims with credential in building by Presbytere, apply to TO. Kitchenette has two electric burners, two frypans, two pots, plates cutlery etc. Must arrive between 4 and 6pm not 5 and 7pm as per guidebook. A little flat with two beds and a kitchenette just across from the cathedral. Must return before 9pm. Open every day (to sleep) but office closed Sat pm and Sunday so they will not admit you then. Has kitchen with hot plates and oven/grill no microwave, also no equipment, pots pans etc but receptionist lent me a pot to boil water and I think they have other stuff too but just not left in the kitchen. She told me to keep the pot in my room. The doors are open all day. Reception is open 09:00 - 12:00 & 14:00 - 19:00. This is very useful if you want to have a rest day in Langres. Close to centre, very convenient. 15 Euros for private room. The YH is fine we have a corner room, two beds, basin etc. There is a laundry room with washing machines & a big sink. The views from our window over the sunrise on the plain below are wonderful. The hostel was very close to the tourist office and it turned out that after 6pm they didn't accept new people. So I was lucky to of only just made it in time.

23	Chalindrey - Les Achots	Gite d'Etape Serge Francois b+b	21/40 double 80	Les Archots	52600 Chalindrey	+33 (0)3.25.88.93.64		Cash only? Price will include breakfast but AR was given a pilgrim discount. Gite/chambre d'hotel at Les Archots is the only place to stay for quite a big area. It is run in a slightly eccentric but effective way by a man & his daughter. Wonderful, cheerful room, excellent, and I do mean excellent food, very friendly and humorous innkeeper, Serge François, and very helpful as well. 40 Euros - I think that's each and includes all that fabulous food and wine. In Les Archots there isn't really anywhere else to stay and if you didn't stay there you would miss really wonderful hospitality. The gite is right at the Pont de les Archots. Very tranquil surroundings among trees. Comfortable rooms. Exceptional dinner and service, and good, early breakfast. € 51 for room, dinner, breakfast. I couldn't find anything between Langres and Champlitte and didn't want to walk 40 km in a day, so stayed in this lovely little B+B. There are only a few houses in the hamlet and no kitchen so you have to have dinner there. Wonderful welcome, clean and comfortable. No phone reception or wifi.
23	Chalindrey	M Parodi Brunc b+b	23	10 Rue de l'Hotel de Ville		+33 (0)3.25.88.92.96		This is a great room and facility with three bedrooms and beds for 7 or 8. Although quite a distance off the recommended VF route, La Flasse is a possible option for pilgrims who don't want to walk the full 39km stage. The gite at Les Archots is very popular and can be full, and Chalindrey is too short a stage from Langres.

He then told me not to worry as that the town had it's own little pilgrim only flat, that was just 10 Euro to stay in.

I was on an upper floor so didn't hear it at night. Shut till 6pm on Saurdays? The rooms are up a circular staircase and one feels like she's in the turret of a castle. Very well appointed room, very clean and comfortable.

On the main road, past the pretty Auberge and up the hill and the hotel is on the right. It's an apartment with cooking facilities, living room with dining, rustic, but very pleasant. 35 Euros for 2 including food for dinner and breakfast (cook your own) supplied by proprietress. I stopped there for a coffee and he was really nice and pilgrim friendly, without being asked he brought me a jug of cold water. I was then trying to plot my route into Besancon and he brought out a box of maps and gave me one of B to peruse. He knew about the Via F and realised I was a pilgrim on it.

However, upon arrival at the AJ, we were asked by an irritated/ unhelpful manager for a letter from the priest confirming this (the priest had said the AJ is used to taking pilgrims in who regularly sends the bill to the parish). Clearly there are frictions going on between the two. In the end, we managed to locate the priest and got the written invitation confirmation. It is a Santiago pilgrim refuge in the basement of the Church, with 2 beds but there are extra mattresses. There is a fridge and a hotplate. The number 3 bus terminates right outside. It is in a suburb on the north side of Lausanne not on the Via F route. We now have our room. It is very pilgrim like. The YH is a converted 19th century building just below the railway station. Our room overlooked the lake & had two double bunk beds in it. The private bathroom is across the corridor & everything is v clean. Well run hostel. Includes breakfast. Has private room, restaurant, bar and internet access Basic rooms in apartment block. Would recommend staying down near the lake rather than central Lausanne though. 4 bed dorm with bathroom - bunk beds. All rooms face the Lake Geneva. Hostel is entirely non smoking. Prices include the city tax, free bus/metro pass in Lausanne (for guests aged 12 and +) and Wi-Fi access but no meals: there is a fully equipped kitchen at disposal and a garden with BBQ. There is also a nearby bakery for breakfast for CHF 7.00 instead of CHF 9.00: ask for the vouchers at the reception desk! Central, a quarter of a mile from the railway station, clean. Some rooms have stunning views over lake Geneva and the mountains. Private room with large bed and shared bathroom with one other room across the hall 80 Francs. Very clean. Great view of lake and Alps.

The property is clean and well kept and the staff spoke excellent English. Except for the coffee, which was made from liquid concentrate and dispensed from a machine, the breakfast was good. The buffet included local meats and cheeses, breads, baked goods, fruit, and cold cereal. The room and bath were good size for the price.
41	Aosta	Hotel Belle Epoque	25/60	Via d'Avise 18	just off Va Aubert in the historic centre	+39 (0)165 262 276		Centrally situated in the old town. Perfectly adequate. We've got a room for the night with bathroom for 60 Euros, right in the middle old the historic centre! We find a shop that sells knives etc, had a good chat, they also recommended we eat where we're staying, said its good family cooked food. Dinner at La Belle Époque was great! Bruschetta for antipasti, a local red vino, pasta for prima, my tortellini was delicious, then Patrick had cingale (deer) ragu with polenta, followed by tiramisù! Family owned and run hotel and restaurant. Service professional. Décor in room was dated and heating wasn't switched on in October despite being only a few degrees outside. Food in restaurant was good.
41	Aosta	Narbussion b+b	65	Via Aubert 50		+39 (0)165 363 006		I highly recommend staying at the Narbussion B&B which is right in the old part of town.

45	Roppolo	B&B Villa Emilia 1899	25	Piazza Rampone, 1		+39 (0)347 587 9408	loretta.tomasoni@yahoo.it	Stopped at Roppolo to avoid long stage to Santhia. As a result I stayed at the warmest and most uplifting place of the whole journey from Besançon to Vercelli: Villa Emilia and its fantastic owner Loretta. Wonderful room, garden and a separate open building for meals and relaxation in good weather. Loretta has lived in Pakistan and Egypt and the whole place is decorated with things she has brought back. Loretta cooked an excellent dinner for me and the other pilgrim staying the night because the local restaurants happened to be closed that evening. She is a remarkably hospitable person. She phoned ahead to book us rooms in San Germano. Single room, breakfast €25. In fact, I would make a point of arranging my stages to stay there.
45	Roppolo	Le Lune b+b	40	Via Cavaglia 2		+39 (0)346 210 9706	bblelune@libero.it	Another superb welcome, beautiful house, pilgrims invited to eat with the family. Couldn't ask for more really – including lifts to pharmacy/doctor/hospital to deal with a dog bite incident. Another top recommendation! A pleasant large double room.
45	Cavaglia	Palestra Scuole Medie	Donation	Via G. Pella		+39 (0)161 960 38/9		The deputy mayor of Cavaglia invited me to their pilgrim hostel. I'm shattered so accept. Walk on, have a dip in his pool then shown to what a previous guest rightly described in the visitor's book as "the Hilton of pilgrim hostels". You can pick up your keys at municipal offices from 8.00 to 17.00, on Saturdays from 12.00. (Friday afternoon in the library), on a Sunday you go fetch the key at the Casa si riposo (home for the elderly) but the nurses did not have the keys and nobody could help me including the priest. Lovely helpful people! The hostel is a simple, clean room with 6 beds and a bathroom. Before 5 pm get key from City Hall, or from old peoples home Salotto D'Argento after 5 pm

45	Santhia	Ostello degli Amici della Via Francigena	10	Via Madonnetta, 4		Caffè della Piazza +39 (0)333 616 2086	info@santhiasullavivfrancigena.it	Pick up keys from "Caffè della Piazza ", the Agency Immobiliara or Traffic wardens' office (all in Piazza Rome). Great reception by Mario. They offer refreshments which was welcome on a Sunday and you could help with donation. Beautiful cathedral with a really old crypt. A must. It is very clean with three double bunk beds, shower and toilet. There are blankets and sheets with a recommended minimum rate of 10 E each and there is no one else here, yet. There was a ticket on the counter for a pilgrim meal of 10E at a restaurant close by. In the restaurant the waiter showed us the menu and said first you pick the pasta, then the meat, then the salad, then the water, then the wine, by this time we were getting nervous about the price. Then the waiter asked if we wanted coffee. It was 10€ each! Wonderful pilgrim accommodation. Small flat next to church in the centre of the town with six beds and bathroom. Offered water and beer in the hostel and the option of two pilgrim meals in local restaurants.
45	Santhia	Albergo Piccadilly	50	Cso XXV Aprile, 51		+39 (0)161 921 196		It is on the outskirts of Santhia on the way in, on the opposite side of the dual carriageway but is about 3 kms from town centre.

45	San Germano Vercellese	Albergo della Miniere	20	Via G. Matteotti, 91		+39 (0)161 933 111	My first negative observation: AVOID the Albergo delle Miniere run by a not very courteous Chinese family. I walked away and met some pilgrims who had been warned about that particular hostel and had been given an alternative to this otherwise only show in town.	Single rooms face the very busy main road. I think the double rooms face the other way. Single room and breakfast €20. Ten rooms in all. Room OK. Bed uncomfortable. No hot water in the morning. Very small breakfast handed out individually (one small croissant and a cup of coffee), but you can buy extra. An excellent pizzeria in the village if you don't want to have dinner in the albergo.
45	San Germano Vercellese	Locanda del Leon d'Oro	30	Piazza Garibaldi				If you have to stay in this not so uplifting town, this restaurant on the piazza Garibaldi does rooms for 30 Euro for couples, incl breakfast. Unwelcoming. Restaurant closed Monday evenings. Curfew 8:30pm. TV broken. Insect screen broken.
46	Vercelli	Don Alberto Colombo	Donation	Corso Giuseppe Garibaldi 90	13100 Vercelli	+39 (0)161 250 167		It is a pilgrim refuge partly run by a local Via F group. 6 bunk beds, shower was cold, we had communal meal. It is located in what looks to be a shelter for homeless / disadvantaged and is beside a Church. It is on the edge of Vercelli and the route out from it bypasses the centre.

I chose it because it is close to the rail station and it was the last day of my walk. Rooms good with aircon. Ask for the aircon remote control at reception. Good restaurant. Comfortable bed. A little out of the way for visiting the main sights of Vercelli. Free Wi-Fi. Single room and breakfast €65, dinner €25.
47	Robbio	Oratorio Parrocchiale	Donation	Piazza S. Stefano, 2		+39 (0)340 153 9929		We stayed in the parish accommodation in Robbio which was fine, but basic. Right next to two bell towers! Even our ear plugs couldn't block out the hourly bells! So we didn't get much sleep. Only 3 places. Clean sheets and a room to ourselves. Booming bell was silent during the night. Basic but OK. (There seems to be contradictory evidence from pilgrims about the bells.)
47	Robbio	Hotel-Ristorante-La Mondina	80	SS-596 dei Cairoli	27038-Robbio			It is on the main road on outskirts on way in to Robbio, expensive but high quality. They have an evening set meal with good choices for 15e including wine and water. Closed

Able to wash clothes, meal also provided. A highlight of this year's stage. Sleeping arrangements are simple - a folding bed in the middle of a big room - but impeccably clean. Tino's welcome makes up for the short-comings of Mortara (another Crewe). There were 3 beds. The caretaker allowed a 4th pilgrim to sleep on the floor - it was a large room. Shower was hot. No cooking facilities. You had to be let out as well as in and were expected to be in by 21:30/22:00. When we arrived outside the building we rang the buzzer and were shown in to a large reception area adjacent to the sanctuary. She showed us where the facilities and made up two folding beds for us. She also got the wifi working, which was nice. Amazing accommodation. Just like the Camino. A club for both the young & the old presided over by Don Antonio, the parish priest. The parish church is the hub of the community here, with the entire youth of the town seemingly around the place. There was a very vibrant, but tranquil, atmosphere in the church hall: older men noisily playing cards, wives watchfully second-guessing them from the sidelines . . . teenage boys and girls pretending to ignore each other. Fantastic welcome. Room above the hall. Seem to have lots of mattresses. Another highlight. Good pizzeria over the road. Like in Gropello, refugio was in a Parish centre with bar/cafe and sports facilities. 2 single beds in a small room with attached loo and shower. Shower was not hot. The Refugio at Montale is a gorgeous, fairly newly renovated hostel in an old church building. Also has a washing machine and kitchen so cooking is possible! 6 beds and 15 places on the floor, baths and showers, laundry, open 12 months. The accommodation is excellent. Large sitting/eating area. Well equipped Kitchen. Laundry with washing machine. Places to eat and buy food across the street. Beautiful accommodation with four rooms and two bathrooms. 3 km beyond Piacenza. Supermarkets nearby. Getting there is quite difficult as there is no path and requires walking on busy roads.

I was the only person staying there other than the monks who inhabit other parts of the Convento. Many rooms, all single on my floor. Very tranquil surroundings, but some distance out of town (as are all the San Francesco convents I stayed at). There is a café next door with WiFi and very friendly staff. Lots of young people coming and going, boys playing soccer across the street to impress the girls. I really liked this place. Restful, rejuvenating

63	Marina de Pietrasanta	Hotel Coluconci						A spacious 1920's 'ocean liner' building set back from the seafont in its own small grassy park by an old working canal at the junction of Via Apua and Viale Roma in Marina di Pietrasanta. I was told by the Tourist Office that this was especially for Pilgrims, it is a purpose built hostel beside the Convent. It had 4 bunk beds, hot shower & loo. Excellent clean room with four double bunk beds. C asked if it would be possible to get sheets for the beds and she went away to ask and when she came back she had sheets and towels. The Convent on one side of the square with beautiful views. The pilgrim house was full so we were put in a dormroom inside the convent itself. Very clean. One of the best pilgrim accommodations on the route. No pilgrim menus available. 6 beds (3 bunk beds) and good bathroom. Excellent position on square.

This is a restaurant that also does cheap rooms. I don't know how cheap as they were full. It was given to the girl in the Pietrasanta TIC by the guy who told her that the accommodation above (Palestra Scuole) was unavailable. We arrived at Camaione and had some difficulty finding the accommodation. A friendly Italian gentleman walked us to the Oratorio Il Colosseo (seems like a church-run community centre) around the corner, through the portal, and around another corner. Conveniently located just outside the centre of town, with numerous cafes and shops. Plenty of beds. I slept on a folding bed in one of the large common rooms. Donation demanded on arrival. Bathroom filthy. Male toilet out of order. Noisy. Not recommended. The ostello in Camaione is closed permanently and its replacement has not opened yet Open from March to September

I asked the very very helpful girl at the tourist office in Pietrasanta for help so she phoned for me. However the phone number is OK.	Accommodation is in the former Priest house. The bed was a cross between a camp bed and sun lounger - no mattress and made a noise when you moved. Bed was in a ground floor meeting type room, not sure how many beds were there, probably about 6 or 7. Shower and loo upstairs. I would recommend a stop in the village for those who want to stay in pilgrim accommodation. The village has a shop and a bar. The refuge, although a camp bed in a meeting room, does have a kitchen (you can buy supplies in Camaioere) and there is the all important hot shower. Good community refugio. I'd encourage everyone to stay there--the volunteer-run ostello is absolutely wonderful. Here I was greeted with delight by Nicola (Italian) and Angel (Spanish), both members of Hospitaleros Voluntarios and here for a few days. Both men radiated welcome and hospitality.

Good basic accommodation in the centre of the village. Open from 5pm. Very clean rooms, huge monastery, centre of old town. Ring ahead. Have breakfast with the brothers, we did. 35€ for dinner bed and breakfast. The room and linen is spotless. I recommend the private rooms and the communal dinner at the convento de San Francesco in San Miniato Alta 33 Euro. On arrival at the Convento San Francesco pilgrims are given a small wooden "Tau" pendant to hand around the neck. The accommodation is in separate rooms, both singles and doubles. One wall of the hall is decorated with astonishing, Picasso-esque murals (photo). Single and double rooms with bathroom. Very comfortable. No kitchen. Nice courtyard garden. Meals taken with the brothers. Convent at the top of the hill; quiet, immaculate, spacious room with 2 single beds; key provided to exit/enter after registration; reservation recommended. Small helpings. This is a purpose built 4 bed pilgrim hostel run by local Via F society. Hot shower, no cooking facilities. There is a good pizza place right beside it. Their representative gave me large scale maps for the next day (which unfortunately were photocopy of photocopy and not very legible) and a beautiful certificate. There is overflow capacity of about 20 sponge mattresses. The ostello here is part of a modern clinic run by Misericordia. A nice touch: when my fellow pilgrim Therese and I returned from dinner we found smart certificates in our names waiting for us, along with packing tubes. A generous gesture. There are 35 beds. The rooms, with bath, ranging from one to four beds. Just outside of Gambassi, picturesque newly converted hostel in old vicarage next to wonderful church where Sigerico stayed. Food available. Nice shared rooms. Ostello Sigerico has been around for a couple of years now, but it's a beautiful place in Gambassi Terme. Very comfortable. Nice courtyard and gardens next to the church. Friendly welcome. Excellent meals. WiFi. The ostello is a little distance before the town and there is a stiff climb to the centre, where there are all the usual cafes and shops – and nice gardens to stroll in. Highly recommended

There was a scout group there when I stayed so I asked the Priest if I could camp on the large area of rough grass between the Church & Parochial House. The cost for a pilgrim is €15 in a dorm room with a double bed, a single bed and 2 bunk beds. Cost includes a meal (if you want it) with the hospitaleros and Priest. It is very similar to some Spanish refugios. There is a kitchen you can probably use but shop in Strove as the only food shops in Monteriggione are of the tourist kind i.e. expensive products typical of the region'. Be warned, if it is hot and you want to make an early start (around 06:30) there is nothing open for coffee/breakfast. Be prepared that you may have to wait to be let in as caretaker has a day job. Very comfortable. Nice common sitting area. Friendly welcome. Closed 12:30 – 15:30. Very hospitable staff, spacious facility, 2 dorm rooms with comfortable beds, shared bathroom and kitchen; basic food supplies are available for dinner and breakfast as the medieval walled town does not have a grocery store; overlooks restaurants in piazza; call ahead for reservation. You can pay more for private room. Warm welcome. We were given a bottle of wine and hospitalero rang Siena to arrange accommodation for us for next day.

Very welcoming and gave us dinner & breakfast. Half board is standard tariff. Curfew at 20.45 . 25 euro each for bed, dinner and breakfast. We had a room with 5 single beds. Shower has hot water. Nuns prefer you to call ahead and if you do they will switch the heating on in winter but it wasn't too cold compared to other places we stayed. Dinner was soup followed by a crumbed chicken with vegetables and fruit for dessert some homemade wine incl. very simple breakfast of coffee and dry toasts. Very comfortable. Wonderful people. 77	Viterbo	Hostel La Torretta Pio VI	10	Via San Giovanni Decollato, 1		+33 (0)335 162 1652	graziaand@libero.it	Small but excellent, volunteer-led pilgrim hostel in recently converted tower in historic city walls. The ospitale is located near Piazza della Trinita, on Via San Giovanni Decollato, within the grounds of an Augustinian monastery. Closed till 3pm. Newly opened March 2012, 12 beds. The folks there made dinner for us and they also speak some English. They gave us a very warm welcome. Staying at La Torretta this summer was definitely one of the highlights of the trip for my group. The people administering it have created it entirely on their own. They prepare dinner and breakfast for pilgrims. Really, really wonderful people. When we stayed there, the hospitaleros had just finished painting new waymarks on an alternative route to Sutri through the woods (much recommended, by the way!). When they learned that we were interested in following that route, one of them volunteered (or, to put it more correctly, insisted) on joining us and leading us through. It was his day off from work. When you enter the old town, look down on the curbs for new waymarks to the albergue. Essentially, you pass through the walls, turn right, and proceed as close to the walls as you can. The tower is in the wall and it's quite historic. I can't recommend it enough.

We have a special rate for pilgrims with credentials, which is 25 Euros per night, no difference for the room type. To pilgrims we also offer for free, breakfasts, internet Wi-Fi, free national phone calls, and washing and drying clothes, and luggage deposit." It is not a romantic Roman address. The street is a small private street of terraced houses, gated, very ordinary. At the back it overlooks a field and there are horses. I could offer breakfast, or the pilgrims could cross the road to our friendly local bar for coffee and cornetti. I am not always in Rome, and would sometimes be too busy to offer hospitality, but would generally be very happy to offer hospitality to pilgrims.
